

ACCIDENT BENEFITS 2019: WHAT'S NEW, WHAT'S IMPORTANT?

Very good...All the instructors were well versed and great speakers. It was a delight to be able to meet [them].

Neha Prabhakar, Hillier & Hillier

The annual must-attend event for everyone working in the accident benefits field, including: lawyers, paralegals, adjudicators, adjusters and claims examiners.

Topics include:

- What are the year's AB cases of greatest practical importance?
- Is the SABS causation test "but for the accident" or "material contribution"?
- What do we know about Licence Appeal Tribunal procedures that we didn't know before?
- What is the typical case conference order and how do you maximize the odds of a favorable result?
- What opportunities are underutilized in the LAT Rules – and what pitfalls are most easily overlooked?
- A medical expert's insights into the clinical facts you need to know in assessing potential CAT claims
- Judgment calls in dealing with ethical and professional conundrums in AB practice

Accident Benefits 2019: What's New, What's Important?

This program has established itself as the best single-day overview of recent trends and practical solutions in the accident benefits field.

This year's program takes advantage of growing experience with the new LAT dispute resolution system and the new CAT definition – while exploring recent developments and perennial challenges in such areas as:

- What arguments are likely to be rejected by adjudicators at case conferences and final hearings?
- When to consider a Reconsideration—and how to go about getting it
- Recent developments in causation
- Why it can pay to deepen your understanding of the definition of an 'accident'
- Calculating the quantum of benefits and dealing with post-accident deductions—what do non-accountants really need to know?

Join us as a distinguished faculty provides key insights into the questions you'll regularly face, in an area still undergoing significant transformation.

Who Should Attend:

- Applicants' and insurers' counsel
- Paralegals and law clerks
- Insurance adjusters and claims examiners
- Accident benefits claims adjudicators

Three years into the LAT regime, our commentators will provide you with invaluable practical tips you can apply immediately.

Most Important AB Cases Of the Last Twelve Months

Sherilyn J. Pickering

Kahler Law Firm

Tripta Sood

Zarek Taylor Grossman Hanrahan LLP

This popular annual session will provide you with a valuable analysis of the most important recent tribunal decisions and assess their impact on AB practice. These are expected to include:

- The appeal in Abyan v Sovereign General Insurance Company and the Reconsideration in 17-000835 v Aviva, both dealing with chronic pain and the MIG
- What do the two leading causation cases of Sabadash v State Farm and Agyapong v Jevco stand for?
- The appeal in Coachman v Sivananthan and its treatment of Stranges v. Allstate – does Stranges apply to the new SABS?
- Tomec v Economical: the Divisional Court's rejection of limitation periods based on discoverability, and other hidden time bombs

Life at the LAT – What’s In and What’s Out At the Licence Appeal Tribunal?

Fabio Longo

Trianta Longo LLP

Todd J. McCarthy

Flaherty McCarthy LLP

Kadey Schultz

Schultz Frost LLP

The LAT has evolved past the “terrible twos,” and we are now in a stronger position to assess its procedures and recommend realistic best practices. This session will update you on what is and isn’t being allowed, in such areas as:

- Your chances of getting an adjournment and how to go about it
- Fighting back on time constraints and witness constraints
- Settlement discussions: taking advantage of the LAT’s mediation services
- When and how to pursue judicial reviews/appeals

Seize this timely opportunity to deepen your insights and have your questions answered by experts.

11:45 a.m.

The LAT Rules – Buried Treasures and Hidden Pitfalls

Catherine H. Zingg

Flaherty McCarthy LLP

The LAT Rules contain provisions which may not be utilized fully even by experienced counsel. If the relevant Rules are not accessed properly or in a timely way, plaintiffs’ or insurers’ interests may be seriously prejudiced. This session will serve as a useful checklist of the important procedural nuances that are of greatest practical relevance to the AB practitioner, along with related caselaw.

The Developing Law On What Constitutes An ‘Accident’: Going Beyond The Obvious

Alex Voudouris

Senior Litigator
Pace Law Firm

- The four-step test in determining what constitutes an accident, illustrated in current caselaw
- What to learn from incidents that may or may not have constituted “accidents,” including suffering a heart attack while driving, falling down stairs while trying to reach the scene of an accident, using a vehicle as a diving board, being assaulted while touching a vehicle, and other examples highlighting the perhaps surprising complexity and relevance of this issue.
